

Transition Privileges for Corporate Membership

Former Corporate Members may, upon termination of their Membership with the corporation retaining the Membership, continue with Transition Privileges for a period of up to six months. They shall be charged at the same dues rate and have the same privileges, except voting, as a Corporate Member and shall retain the same Membership number. As the Membership deposit will be returned to the corporation upon termination, a Transition Privileges Member must guarantee payment with a credit card and make complete payments monthly in order to maintain privileges. Transition Privileges Members will be required to leave an imprint of their credit card.
